Builder Sells 5 Acre Lakefront Family Compound in Stone Creek Ranch

Delray Beach, FL (Jun. 25, 2009) – Kenco Communities sold a seven-bedroom, eight full- and two half-bath estate home at 16191 E Quiet Vista Circle in Delray Beach to an undisclosed buyer on May 26.

Listed at $6.9 million, the newly completed 11,000 square foot “Sedona” is situated on a two and one half acre lakefront site within Stone Creek Ranch. The buyer also purchased the two and one half acre lakefront lot next to the home.

Nestled amid 187 acres of rolling green vistas, spectacular treescapes and expansive sparkling lakes, Stone Creek Ranch in Delray Beach, developed by Kenco Communities, is south Florida's grandest estate home community, providing the ultimate in privacy and privileged lifestyle.

Beyond its stately entryway, distinguished by a breathtaking waterfall and majestic stone gatehouse, only 37 luxurious estates, each on 2-1/2-acre and larger scenic lakefront homesites, grace this serenely private enclave. These exceptional homesites are perfect for one-of-a-kind estates or unique private compounds, offering spectacular water views and ample space for terraced gardens, separate guest quarters, patios, pool decks and private tennis or sport courts.
